SCHOOL ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Education Act requires that children of compulsory age (6 years old) are enrolled and attend school. Children who are not of compulsory age but who have enrolled are subject to the same participation requirements. Schools have a legal responsibility to monitor lateness and attendance.

Compulsory school age is when children must be enrolled in and attends school, from when they turn 6 until they turn 16.

Patterns of attendance and absence that are set up in the early year usually persist through education and life. Regular attendance at school is important to a child's learning and development.

Poor attendance may lead to learning difficulties because children who are frequently absent are likely to miss learning the basic skills needed for their future education.

Schools and preschools work with parents to encourage attendance and participation to:

- Provide relevant learning programs for all students
- Maintain accurate records of attendance
- Ensure non-attendance is followed up through early intervention
- Develop strategies to resolve attendance difficulties

At Modbury South Pre-Year 7 School we:

- Seek to engage all students in their learning to encourage full participation.
